Can you really trust the Bible?

It's an important question that's worth asking. Join us to watch one skeptic's search for answers in the movie "The Case for Christ." It's a perfect follow-up to the Easter season. If the Bible's message is reliable, what does that mean for regular people like us?

Join us for relevant questions about life and faith

Sunday, April 8 (one week after Easter)

2:00 p.m.

Free ~ All are welcome

Refreshments and informative materials for everyone

ABOUT US: Grace & Truth Chapel is a non-denominational fellowship of Bible-believing Christians. Our interest is in teaching the Bible so that anyone can understand it and follow its teachings. This three-part series is completely free, with no obligations or financial collections. We look forward to meeting you!
